

To An Authoritative Figure of Cumulus Broadcasting,

While driving home at approximately 8:45 PM, I was listening to 95.5 WIXV Savannah. The DJ on duty, who refers to himself as "Caveman" was talking on the air with another male. In this conversation they were discussing Jennifer Anniston in a lewd and obnoxious manner. Remarks such as "I'd like her to sit on my face", "I'd like to play sticky fingers with her", "I bet it doesn't even stink" in reference to her female anatomy. As a woman, I am outraged that this was on the air for the public to hear. I called the radio station immediately thereafter and spoke to "Caveman". In the very brief conversation, I pointed out that 95.5 had censored the words "bullshit" and "damn" from classic rock songs, yet a DJ is allowed to discuss female anatomy on air in a boorish manner. He was very aloof and unapologetic.

My husband and I are long time listeners of 95.5 and have noticed the downward spiral it has taken in recent years. I love classic rock, but I do not love to hear any man (Let alone a DJ) degrade women or act in any way that is chauvinistic. The "Caveman's" actions tonight set woman back 40 years in my opinion. When it is OK for a man to speak of women this way? Never.

I am requesting that immediate action be taken against blatant sexism and crudeness tolerated by WIXV.

Sincerely,
